ST. JOE NEWS

VOL. 1. SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 1880. No. 1.

A SURE SIGN.

A tipsy man was walking home,
Beneath the moon's pale light;
Jnhnny, his son, was leading him,
Because his dad was tight.

A darkened shadow crossed his path—
A swing-sign was the cause—
Up went his foot a yard or less,
So's not to stub his toes.

And brought his foot at least three feet.
Beyond his turned up nose.

"What's that we passed, Johnny, dear?"
"A sign," said John, with spunk—
"A sign! na signs—a sign of what?"
"A sign you're very drunk!"
